

GEORGE BUSH 1989 KEY

Cabinet

There were 13 departments when President Bush entered the White House. A 14th, the Department of Veterans Affairs, was added during his administration.

The Cabinet also included the Vice President, the U.S. Trade Representative, and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

Form of Address

It was the same as in Washington's time.

Terms in Office

He spent one term in office; President Bush was defeated in the 1992 election.

Acts Passed During Administration

Clean Air Act of 1990

Created 93 new National Wildlife Refuges

Omnibus Water Bill of 1992

Americans with Disabilities Act

Job Training Partnership Act Amendments of 1992

National Affordable Housing Bill of 1992

Financial Institution Reform and Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989

America 2000

Child Care Assistance Act of 1990

Legal Immigration Act of 1990

Older Americans Act of 1992

Political Parties

Republican and Democratic parties

There were two major political parties in 1988 election.

During the 1992 election, there were two major parties and one third party (strong independent candidate).