

BUS
FUNDING
REIMBURSEMENT
WHILE
AVAILABLE

2016 FALL EDUCATION PROGRAM (BUSH41.ORG)
GEORGE BUSH PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY AND MUSEUM
FREE OF CHARGE PROGRAMS ONSITE AND ONLINE

CURRICULUM
STANDARDS
AVAILABLE

THURS., SEPT. 22, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M.

CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL OF HONOR FOUNDATION TEACHERS WORKSHOP

Teachers grades 6-12 will enjoy this engaging day of free professional development. The beautiful Medal of Honor Character Development Resource Kit will be given to onsite, full-day workshop attendees. The distance learning program features a Medal of Honor recipient. The training portion will explore the Medal of Honor Character Development Program.

THURS., OCT. 20, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M. AND 12:30 - 1:30 P.M.

CHEMISTRY ROAD SHOW BY DR. JIM PENNINGTON

Discover more about the chemical basis of life. Join Dr. Jim Pennington as he presents the Texas A&M Chemistry Road Show. Exciting chemistry demonstrations create curiosity and astonishment with learning stimulation. Engage students with fun and practical uses for chemistry. President and Mrs. Bush have supported and encouraged medical research involving chemistry to find cures for cancer. Expanding chemistry knowledge has extended life.

WED., NOV. 9, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M.

PRESIDENT BUSH 41'S LEADERSHIP: SIX PRESIDENTIAL ROLES

Linked to learning the six presidential roles, join an interactive program led by Dr. Charles Hermann, Dean Emeritus. This will include student examples given of President Bush 41's leadership. This exciting way to understand how a president fulfills the duties of the job is timely as a new administration will start soon. How does a president decide what tasks to do? Currently Dr. Hermann is Professor and Brent Scowcroft Chair in International Policy Studies at the George Bush School of Government and Public Service, Texas A&M University.

THURS., NOV. 17, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M. AND 12:30-1:30 P.M.

HUMOROUS POETRY BY POET COL. WAYNE EDWARDS

Col. Wayne Edwards (www.familypoet.com) is a comic poet who brings his humorous poetry to life. Through discussion of the three R's of rhyming - rhyme, rhythm, and repetition - he inspires interest in both reading and writing poetry. His fun illustrated poems engage students through laughter! Col. Edwards will present poetry from his new book, "No Vacancy."

THURS., DEC. 1, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M. AND 12:30-1:30 P.M.

AN ORIGINAL AMERICAN - BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BY GREGROBIN SMITH

Bringing to life Dr. Benjamin Franklin, GregRobin Smith leads an unforgettably enriching visit to Colonial America, the Revolution, and the life of this innovative, gregarious, original American.

TUES., DEC. 6, 2016, 10:30 - 11:30 A.M.

HOLIDAY GIFT OF AESOP STORYTELLING BY MASTER STORYTELLER BARBARA HAILEY

Consider the wisdom of the ages brought to life in these stories to inspire hearts and minds! AESOP was the champion of the underdog and sought to bring joy to the lives of all. This holiday time is a perfect time to reflect on the joy of storytelling by joining Master Storyteller Barbara Hailey. AESOP time gives the gift of understanding and happiness!

Programs are offered ONSITE at the Annenberg Presidential Conference Center
1002 George Bush Drive West, College Station, TX 77845 (unless otherwise noted)
For free onsite reservations: email bush.education@nara.gov or call 979.691.4006

Programs are offered ONLINE through video-conference, live stream or recording
For free online learning reservations: www.connect2texas.net/bush41

