

GEORGE TO GEORGE

Students will use primary and secondary sources to complete the following activity. Research materials can be used to locate information on George Washington's Administrations.

Students can utilize the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum to answer the questions on George Bush's Administration. Answers will be found in various areas of the Museum including White House Tour, Domestic Policy, Foreign Policy, New World Order and Campaign '92.

A bonus question can be added to the assignment.

Think of the dates, 1789-1989, and see if you can think of what nickname George Bush was given after being elected in 1989.
